SALOONS OR NO SALOONS AGAIN BECOMES RED HOT LOCAL ISSUE

Action of Legislature Will Precipitate Election in Every Township and City in Rush County.

TO KEEP PRESENT CONDITIONS

"Drys" Are Already Formulating Plans to Keep Saloons Out of Rushville For Another Period.

BELIEVE IT WILL BE POSSIBLE

"Wets" Are Planning to Open Drink Emporiums as Soon as Possible—Publication For License.

Now since Ita has left the city and an air of general peace and quietude prevails, another much more important subject promises to take the stage and disrupt the conditions that have been so tranquil. It is best known as local option. The law was expected to pass the lower house of the Legislature in Indianapolis this afternoon and be sent directly to the governor for his signature which he will, beyond every reasonable doubt, as it is believed, affix. The two year period, for which time Rushville was voted "dry" will expire Monday, February 27, 1909. Already the "dry" element in the city, which was largely responsible for the county being voted "dry" two years ago, is already formulating plans to continue the "dry" spell which has been in force here.

But while the "drys" are planning the "wet" element is not asleep. Already it is rumored that many business rooms in the city have been rented for the purpose of installing saloons, just as soon as it is possible. James McCormick, formerly a saloon keeper and who has been operating a drink emporium and pool room since the county option law has been in effect here, yesterday published a notice that he would apply for a saloon license. It is believed that his notice will be followed by several others who are contemplating opening saloons, just as soon as the new law allows.

But in the meantime, the Rushville "drys" are formulating and preparing plans for continuing the present conditions. Although no definite action has been taken, the conversation on that topic in many places over the city has tended in that direction. This morning several men who were prominent in "dry" circles two years ago expressed the belief that the saloons could be voted out and another "dry" spell could be put in force, even before a saloon was given a license to open in Rushville. It is possible that this idea will be the "big idea" which will be acted upon in the near future.

It will be necessary to act at once, as one man said this morning, if Rushville is to continue as a "dry" city. According to the common belief here and that which was the case two years ago, once a man is granted a license to operate a saloon, he has the right to continue until his license expires—which is one year from the date of issuance. If several men should procure licenses before Rushville is again voted "dry" the city would have a number of saloons for a year at least. That is taking it to be a certain fact that Rushville would go "dry." But should it be voted "wet" there would be no question and as many saloons could be opened as there were licenses granted. But it is generally conceded that Rushville would go "dry" should it be put to a vote. Two years ago every ward in the city piled up a "dry" majority with the exception of the second ward, which was "wet" by a number of votes.

It is highly probable that the "dry" element of the city will go to work immediately after Governor Marshall signs the Proctor bill. As was the case in the other law, it will be necessary to obtain the names of twenty per cent of the voters of the district to be voted on, on a petition to be presented to the county commissioners, before they shall call an election. With the city as the voting unit the "drys" believe that they can easily circulate petitions and get the required number of signatures in a very few days. Various plans for circulating the petitions have been suggested.

It is argued that the twenty per cent of the voters in Rushville can be obtained before the next regular monthly meeting of the county board of commissioners, which will be held Monday, February 6. The "drys" maintain that if the petitions are correct, the commissioners may call an election and the question may be decided by vote before the first regular meeting of the commissioners in March, when the first petition for a saloon license will be presented.

It will not be possible for any man to present his petition for a saloon license before the monthly meeting of the commissioners in March. The law requires that the notice shall be published for a month before the petition be placed before the commissioners. It has been argued that James McCormick's publication notice is a bit hasty as the Proctor bill had not been passed and signed by the governor when it first appeared. At any rate he can not go before the commissioners for a license before March 6.

To prevent the return of the saloon to Rush county, it will be necessary to hold elections in every township, every incorporated city and every township outside an incorporated city. As Rushville is the only incorporated city in Rush county it will be necessary to hold one election in every township except Rushville where one in the city and one in the township outside the city will be necessary under the Proctor law.

DECLARES WATSON WILL HELP HIM

Alonzo Kessler of Elwood, Convicted of Arson Says Former Congressman Will Assist Him.

ABOUT TO BE SENT TO PRISON

Although held in jail without funds and ready to be taken to Michigan City to begin the serving of his two to twenty-one years sentence for arson, imposed upon him by Judge Bagot of the circuit court, Alonzo Kessler, who attempted to destroy his home here last Friday night that he might collect the insurance, has received the assurance from James E. Watson of Rushville, a relative, that he will see Governor Marshall personally in the effort to get that official to secure Kessler's release on parole, says an Elwood dispatch. The young man also has two relatives who are members of the present legislature and they will also see the governor in his behalf.

To read the Bible through at the rate of a chapter a day would take three years and three months.

MAD DOG SCARES TOWN OF ORANGE

Eldon, Son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Frazee, Bitten by Canine, is Sent to Pasteur Institute.

DOGS BRAINS ARE EXAMINED

Following Announcement, Comes the Wholesale Killing and General Excitement Prevails.

Orange and vicinity is laboring under a mad dog scare, for which there appears to be substantial foundation and which has thrown the village into an actual panic, says the Connersville News.

Three weeks ago a small, unkempt cur, unknown to anyone who saw it, passed through the village and bit several dogs that tried to make friends with it. Little was thought of this until last Saturday, when a dog belonging to E. A. Frazee, brother to L. A. Frazee of this city and John P. Frazee of Rushville, snapped the former's little son, Eldon, on the cheek. The action was so unexpected and so viciously done that the dog was killed and its head sent to Indianapolis for medical examination. It did not arrive in Indianapolis, however, until Monday morning, but on Monday afternoon word was received at the Frazee home that the brain of the animal had been examined, and that it had suffered from hydrophobia.

This word naturally brought sudden confirmation of the worst fears which the Frazee family had entertained. The boy who was bitten was immediately taken to Indianapolis to the Pasteur Institute, where he is still under treatment. The word has been received that he is getting on nicely, but no particulars as to the progress of his treatment have been received.

Following the information that the dog had hydrophobia a wholesale killing of dogs, and of other stock, such as calves, chickens and pigs, which were known to have been bitten by the strange cur, but not the one that attacked the Frazee child, has taken place. It is not known how many animals the diseased canine bit, but it was not caught and for all that is known may have gone farther and spread the disease in other neighborhoods.

NOT CAREFUL IN CHOOSING HEARERS

Knightstown Youth Recites Story of His Wonderful Escape and is Arrested by Policeman.

HAPPENED TO BE IN CROWD

Because he was not careful of his audience, before whom he recited the story of his misdeeds, Robert Kerr of Knightstown will, today be returned to the Boys' Reformatory at Plainfield for having violated his parole, says a Knightstown dispatch. Before an interested crowd of spectators in a local livery barn last night Kerr told of having violated his parole, assaulted his stepfather and made good his escape. Among his auditors was Captain of Police Charles Williamson, who was in plain clothes. When the young man had finished his tale of desperadoism the captain took him into custody.

DISTRICT MEET NEXT MONTH

Ivy Lodge, No. 27 K. of P. Will be Largely Represented at New Castle Feb. 2.

ARRANGEMENTS BEING MADE

Two Lodges There Planning to Entertain at Least 500 Guests in Royal Fashion.

Already members of Ivy Lodge, No. 27, Knights of Pythias, of this city, are looking forward to the district meeting of the order which will be held in New Castle the first of next month. It is very likely that the local lodge will be largely represented as a good number went to Cambridge City last year where the annual district meeting was held. The New Castle Times says of the coming meeting:

Both Crescents Lodge, No. 33 and Philos Lodge, No. 547, Knights of Pythias, are already busy with preparations for the district meeting which will be held in this city on February 2, and will work in conjunction to make the meeting the most enjoyable of any held in recent years. The event will draw Pythians from all parts of the district, which includes the counties of Randolph, Wayne, Rush, Henry, Fayette and Union. Dr. E. H. Brubaker, D. G. C., will preside over the sessions, which will probably be held at the hall of Crescents lodge. The meeting last year was held at Cambridge City.

Both lodges have appointed committees to look after the various details of the meeting and to arrange for the entertainment of the members. It is expected that at least five hundred will attend the meeting and that several State officers will be present and participate in the program of the day. Philos lodge appointed committees at the last meeting and both lodges will work for the success of the coming meeting.

LOCAL WOODMEN PLAN BIG TIME

Will Initiate Class of 30 on Night of February 15—Banquet to Follow.

MANY VISITORS TO BE HERE

Connersville Degree Team Will Come—State Consul J. D. Volz Will Give Lecture.

The prospects for a big time in local woodcraft February 15, 1911, are very bright. Last night the Modern Woodmen acted on eight applications for membership in the camp, making about thirty who are preparing to be adopted in a class on the above named date.

The Connersville degree team will give both the Beneficial and Fraternal degrees to the candidates and they have a reputation for good team work that is unsurpassed by any team in the State.

Several of the big men in the order will be present and participate in the exercises of the evening. State Consul J. D. Volz of Indianapolis will be present with his stereopticon and will give an illustrated lecture on Woodcraft found in the new ritual. Head Physician Z. C. Wolfe of Corydon, Ind., and P. J. Strack of New Albany, the funniest speaker in the Woodmen, has promised to attend. And last, but not least, at the close of the ceremony of adoption the members and candidates will have an opportunity to satisfy their hunger with an old time feast of good things.

Those who are thinking of becoming candidates and going in with the class should hand in their applications at once as it will take about two weeks to have their paper examined and their policies returned to the local camp clerk.

JOHN CRAWLEY NOT TO BE RECONCILED AFTER APPEARANCE OF SNAKE STORY

Says His Renter Backed Out Because "Rattlers" Travel in Pairs But Here's a Reason.

John Crawley, living at the corner of Morgan and Seventh streets, refuses to be reconciled. Now there are lots of men who refuse to be that, whatever that is, but John believes he has a special reason for being in such a mood. He has almost become a confirmed pessimist on the strength of the happenings of the last few days. Misfortune is coming to him in larger chunks than he ever saw before and he avers that he is suffering for all the wrongs of his ancestors. That may be the least bit strong, but anyway, John is disconsolate and much depressed. He has poured forth his hypochondriacal spirit to the listeners around the brilliant gas fire in the engine house. Here's his story. Listen:

"I had my house, back of my property, rented to a man and he was to take it just as soon as I repaired it. I got to digging around there, fixing it up as best I could, and found a rattle snake, a real live rattle snake. I killed him and spread his skin out to dry and someone saw it. They told some of these danged reporters and it was in the paper. The man I had the house rented to, backed out, because he said rattle snakes always traveled in pairs and the other one was around there some place. Now I ain't got any renter."

But here's a man who has been thinking about that rattle snake story ever since he saw it in the Daily Republican the other evening. He reasons thusly: Rattle snakes are very uncommon in this section of the country, especially in thickly inhabited places. That house is not the natural home of that rattle snake and Mr. Rattler arrived there by some means, which must be explained. The Pennsylvania railroad passes just back of John Crawley's house. Trains that travel through here come from southern Indiana and down in Kentucky, where the hills are numerous. It is very possible that that snake slipped off on a Pennsylvania train, while it was going through a deep cut, to take a short "joy ride" up into the Hoosier State. Often the trains stop along by Crawley's home, as they must come to a complete standstill in crossing the C. H. & D. Now wouldn't it be possible for that rattle snake, tiring of his ride to slip off there by Crawley's and "edge" up into the yard? Naturally he would seek shelter under the house.

Now, what do you think of that?

WILL PROBABLY PASS BY 61 TO 39

The Proctor Bill Comes up For Third Reading Promptly at Three O'clock This Afternoon.

REPUBLICANS DELAY VOTE

Give Many Speeches Against Its Passage—Governor Will Sign Measure Tomorrow.

[Special to the Daily Republican.]

The Proctor option bill came up for a third reading in the House this afternoon, promptly at three o'clock. It is believed that the bill will pass by a vote of 61 to 39. In all probability it will not go to the Governor before tomorrow morning.

A large and enthusiastic crowd that packed the galleries and filled all of the available floor space was in attendance when Representative Farries, Republican, from Bedford, made a strong plea against the bill. Ashwald of Kosciusko county was another speaker against its passage. Up until four o'clock no vote had been taken, but is generally supposed that the measure will be backed by the Democratic party vote.

Republican members of the House had a little fun yesterday afternoon in trying to amend the Proctor local option bill when it came up for second reading. Haste was made with the bill after it came over from the senate. It was reported out of committee for passage in the forenoon, and was rushed to second reading as quickly as possible. It came up on special order for passage at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

As soon as the reading clerk had finished the reading of the bill, the flood of amendments started from the Republican side.

The first one was by White to prevent territory now dry from automatically becoming wet after the passage of the bill. This amendment was laid on the table, the vote being 57 to 43. Clare, Merriman and Higgins, Democrats, voted with the forty Republican members against tabling the amendment.

Another amendment by Oldaker, Republican, provided that in a county in which there is a city of 8,000 or more people the city and the territory outside of the city shall be separate units, and where there is no such city the county shall be the unit.

Mendenhall offered an amendment to call a special election next June and allow the people of the entire State to say by their votes whether the State should operate under this law in case the bill is passed.

Mendenhall made a speech in which he said he was offering the Democrats an opportunity to show their Democracy by agreeing to a referendum.

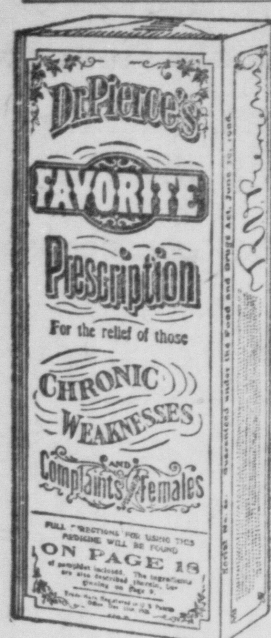

The Republicans insisted on a roll call on every proposal and this waste of time worried the Democrats. Finally Floor shut off further efforts of amendments and put an end to roll calls by moving that the bill be sent to engrossment and demanding the previous question.

Another roll call was demanded by the minority side. Clore, Higgins and Merriman continued to vote with the minority. The bill was sent to engrossment by a vote of 61 to 39.

Disease and Death In State

The regular monthly bulletin of the State Board of Health in regard to disease and death says: Tonsillitis was reported as the most prevalent disease in December. Bronchitis was second and rheumatism third. Pneumonia held fifth place. Smallpox has almost passed out of existence, a few cases appearing every month. Tuberculosis held its own splendidly. It can be depended upon to produce on an average of one death every two hours. Hydrophobia caused one death in Sullivan county. In infantile paralysis (polio myelitis) caused 4 deaths: Dekalb county, 1; Fountain, 1; Noble 1; St. Joseph, 1. There is every reason to fear the appearance of this disease in the coming summer months. Diphtheria was less than in the same month last year. The deaths numbered 3017, rate 12.8. The same month last year 2831, rate 12.2. Tuberculosis killed 350, typhoid fever 61, diphtheria 46, scarlet fever 10, measles 10, whooping cough 17, pneumonia 413, influenza 63, puerperal 10, cancer 157, violence 217. Cancer is now about twice as destructive as typhoid fever. It is certainly on the increase, and typhoid decreasing.

The death rate was 14.7 and the country death rate, 11.1. Indianapolis death rate, 14.7; Evansville 11.8; Ft. Wayne 13.1; Terre Haute 15.4; South Bend 17.9.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The state railroad commissions of Michigan, Indiana and Ohio have filed with the interstate commerce commission a joint complaint against eleven railroads operating in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Illinois, against the system of classification of freight used by the carriers. It is alleged that by reason of the variance in the weight, bulk and value of commodities in the sixth class of freight, a new class or classes should be established to cover certain commodities now in that class. The complaint asks the commission to abolish commodity rates and require the carriers to establish a new class or classes, the rates of which shall not be more than 10 per cent of the amount charged per 100 pounds for freight carried and charged for as first class. The carriers named as defendants are the Pennsylvania lines, the New York Central, the Lake Shore, the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis, the Baltimore & Ohio, the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, the Erie railroad, the Pere Marquette railroad, and the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton road.

A worthy effort was made before the legislature to keep the county option law inviolable, but it was too late. This effort should have been made by ballot at the election last November. There is nothing to do now but to gracefully take the medicine.

With a National Republican party and a regular Republican party the indications are, that it will all result as harmoniously as when the Democrats had a free silver and a gold standard party with the Populists on the side line. But experience seems to be no teacher even to parties.

The repeal of the county option law and its probable effect is the principal topic of discussion everywhere. Since the Democratic measure makes cities and townships the local option unit, it is take for granted that many of the Indiana cities which were made "dry" by the vote in the out townships, would, if an election is held under the new law, go "wet." It is difficult to foretell what the results of an election would be after a two years' trial of the county option. The elections of two years ago were held and conducted under a wave of excitement which could probably not be duplicated at this time. Then there is at this time a considerable change of feeling with reference to this subject. Many voters who voted "wet" two years ago, after seeing the operation of the law, would vote "dry" now, while others who voted "dry" under the wave of excitement would vote "wet" now.

However, the friends of local option need not despair. If a majority of the voters in a city or township so declare, the territory can be kept dry, or it can be kept dry by remonstrance under the Nicholson law, which is still in force.

WHAT SPENDING $100.00 MEANS.

Have you ever stopped to consider seriously the earning power of money?

Do you realize that whenever you spend money foolishly you are not only losing this actual cash in hand, but also the interest that the money might earn for you as long as you live.

For example, suppose you have saved $100.00. You can put this money into the Bank or you can spend it.

Whether you spend it wisely or not you will lose more than $3.00 every year for life, for that is what $100.00 would earn at 3 per cent interest in The Rush County National Bank.

If your expenditure of the $100.00 is a wise and necessary one, it is probably worth $3.00 a year even if you live for 50 years longer, but if you are planning to spend that $100.00 foolishly, our advice to you is don't, but just put it into this Bank and let the 3 per cent compound interest double or treble your capital.

GREET RETURN OF HORSE WITH DELIGHT

Local Horsemen Are Glad to Hear

That Allation Will be "At Home" Here Again.

SPENT MOST OF LIFE HERE

The return of the great sorrel stallion Allation, to the stud in this city, where he will be trained for the coming race season, which, it is announced, will take place soon, is hailed with delight by local horsemen. Rushville has been the home of the stallion until a few months ago, when he was sold under the hammer in Chicago. Curt Gosnell, formerly of this city, but who has been in Cambridge City for the past few years, purchased him. It is rumored that he paid sixteen hundred dollars for the trotter.

Allation was in the stable of J. A. Quay at the local fair grounds the greater part of his life and has been under the constant care of Scott Brannum. When Mr. Quay died his stable was taken to Chicago and sold at public auction. It so happened that Allation was sold to Curt Gosnell who will bring the horse here in a few weeks together with the rest of his stable and train at Riverside park. Allation will be remembered as the beautiful sorrel horse which Scott Brannum has shown here at the horse show and county fair each year.

Girls are the best spellers in Indiana, according to reports received from the county spelling matches held last Saturday. Several of the boys who attend "little red school-houses" won first honors, but the girl winners were in the majority. The winners will represent their counties in the district "spelling bees" when the contestants of the State spelling match will be chosen.

UNUSUAL TWINS.

Arlington twins are to have different birthdays. That statement may sound astounding, since twins generally celebrate the same day as the anniversary of their birth, but not so with the two girl babies of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Walls of Arlington, who were born a few days ago. One arrived in this world just a few minutes before midnight and the other came to enjoy the 20th century a short time after midnight.

The Vaudet will offer tonight besides the regular two reels of pictures, John B. Vincent in vaudeville. Mr. Vincent is a black-face comedian of great ability and is said to offer something new in his special line to the public. The first picture is a Thanhouser film, "The Mistress and the Maid." The other is an Itala film entitled "A Sufferer of Insomnia" and "Where Have I Put my Fountain Pen." Both of these are good comedies. A new illustrated song will be sung.

JIMMY VALENTINE, WARDEN HANDLER AND ROSE LANE.

Mr. Lane was only half startled at the open declaration of his daughter of her admiration and gratitude for and sentimental interest in the ex-convict Jimmy Valentine. His trained intuition had already told him that she was more than casually concerned in the fate of this mystifying young man, whose record was apparently so bad and whose personality and ambitions were certainly impressive in their good qualities. Truth to tell, Mr. Lane was considerably disturbed at the situation, but he determined to accept it philosophically for the present and to watch carefully the future development.

"Rose" the father exclaimed as the girl concluded her statement. While he had realized her attraction toward the released prisoner, he had not guessed of the depth of her feeling for him.

"It's no good to be shocked, dad," answered the girl. "It's true. And then he went to prison on the death rattle of a beast like that, and I'm going to make it good to him if he's a man. And he is; every drop of my blood tells me so."

"And you don't even know his name?"

"Yes, I do."

"He gave you one, I know, but even that?"

"Well, what of it? Does a name mean anything to real men and women? No. The one comes—the one in all the world—and, well—that's all there is to love."

A pause ensued. The father was first to speak.

"Do you think he knows how you feel?" he asked sympathetically.

"No, nor he never will—unless you some day—believe him—worthy of me."

"You promise that?" relievedly.

"I promise, dad."

"Will you wait until I see the governor, Rose? Let us go to see him and ask his opinion of the matter."

"Gladly, and he will believe in him, I know," said the girl enthusiastically. She heard a step behind her, and she turned.

There, with his hat in his hand, well groomed and wearing a well cut suit of brown clothes—light brown, the fashionable color—there stood Jimmy Valentine.

"Mr. Valentine!" exclaimed the girl. "Miss Lane, how do you do?" stepping quickly forward, extending his hand.

"This is my father," she presented Valentine to Mr. Lane, who welcomed him pleasantly.

Further conversation by the three was interrupted by the entrance of Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Webster, returning from the tea room. Mr. Lane and Rose departed to go to the governor's chamber, and the two members of the Gate of Hope society and Jimmy Valentine seated themselves.

"And now, Mr. Valentine, concerning your future," began Mrs. Webster. "What do you contemplate doing?"

"Get a position."

"We have already arranged that for you, Mr. Valentine," announced Mrs. Moore complacently.

"That is very thoughtful, ladies, but—"

"Mrs. Moore did not exactly convey the entire facts," interjected Mrs. Webster.

"No?"

"We have a choice of three positions for you, Mr. Valentine," went on Mrs. Webster. "One is in a grain elevator."

"Yes," smiled Valentine. "I can imagine that would be a safe place for one under suspicion of robbing a bank."

The ladies failed to detect the veiled note of sarcasm.

"The second," informed Mrs. Moore, "is as a bookkeeper or checker in a scrap iron yard."

"Still under suspicion, I see," commented Valentine dryly.

"And the third as the first male officer in the Gate of Hope society," Mrs. Webster proudly declared.

"Yes," agreed the other charity worker.

"Treasurer?" the ex-convict queried significantly.

"No; secretary!" both the ladies cried simultaneously.

"I hold that honored position now," resumed Mrs. Moore. "but were you

SAGE FOR DARKENING THE HAIR.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect. Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time, tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the brew. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready made product. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy. This preparation is sold by all first-class druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

TIRED, RUN DOWN PEOPLE

A North Carolina Man Suggests a Remedy.

Greensboro, N. C.—"For a long time I was so run down and debilitated that I could hardly drag around. My appetite was poor and I could not sleep nights. I had tried different so-called tonics without benefit. I was advised to try your cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol, and I as so glad I did, for it gave me a hearty appetite, I soon commenced to sleep soundly and I feel strong, well and more active than I have for years. Every run-down or debilitated person should just give Vinol a trial." K. Allsbrook. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

What Vinol did for Mr. Allsbrook it will do for every weak, run-down or debilitated person in this vicinity. To show our faith we will furnish the medicine free if it does not do as we claim. Come in and get a bottle on these terms. F. B. Johnson & Co., Druggists, Rushville, Ind.

willing to accept it we would pay a salary. We agree that your knowledge of the—"

"The inside," suggested Valentine.

"Exactly—would be a great help to us."

"Doubtless."

"Then you accept, Mr. Valentine?"

"No, ladies," decisively.

"You refuse the position?"

"Yes, ladies. In fact, I decline all your positions."

The Gate of Hope representatives rose and assumed expressions of extreme indignation at the unexpected repulse and refusal of their well meant but ill advised offers.

"Ingratitude!" they exclaimed.

Valentine, who had deprecated their advances because of their evident mistrust of him in spite of his pardon, as shown by the nature of the positions they had offered him, resolved on a course of action that would, he thought, dispose of them and at the same time afford him a long craved amusement.

"No; please do not say that," he protested elaborately. "No, no. I refuse the positions you offer me because I fear the world would misunderstand."

"What do you mean?" asked one of the ladies.

"Oh, you see," went on Valentine whimsically, "if I accepted help from you ladies the world might say that you—er—you were in love with me!"

"Oh-h-h!" ejaculated the astonished ladies.

"Let the world say what it dare!" proclaimed the pedantic little Mrs. Moore, lifting her chin defiantly.

"And so goodbye, my dear ladies," said Valentine, bowing almost to the floor.

With anger in their glance and their walk, chins and noses pointing almost toward the ceiling, the two members of the Gate of Hope society stalked out of the hotel parlor.

Jimmy Valentine, chuckling in his amusement, sank into a chair to await the return of Miss Lane and her father, Miss Lane—Rose Lane—the girl who had saved him from the horrors of that "bit of ten" at Sing Sing. How beautiful she was, he murmured. She had a heart, and she cared something for No. 1259; that was apparent. Just how much did she care? Just what did she care? If a man lived straight he might in time win such a girl for his own. Yes; that was life. And Jimmy Valentine now had his chance to "go straight," he reasoned. Stranger things had happened. The girl had revealed already, had she not, that she knew a prison sentence could not kill the good in a man if a single germ of it yet lingered in him? The old life was behind him now. The future gleamed bright and beckoned him on. Never again would he—

"Jimmy! Jimmy!" A harsh whisper hissed its way into his ears.

Jimmy Valentine started up in amazement. That voice, that whisper! He had not heard it since the night the Hartford "bulls" had broken up that midnight surprise party in the vaults of the Fifth National bank.

Hardly believing his ears, hardly daring to turn, yet he did turn, and he saw, crouching half behind one of the red velvet portieres of one of the hotel parlor entrances, the figure of Red—the face and the brick red hair of Red Flanagan, his old time coworker.

JOHN P. WHITE

New Head of the United Mine Workers of America.

NEW HEAD OF MINERS WON BY 26,000 VOTES

Iowa Man Puts It All Over Tom Lewis.

Columbus, O., Jan. 26.—President Tom Lewis of Bridgeport, O., will retire April 1 after three years as head of the United Mine Workers of America. Tellers who counted the referendum vote of last fall declared John P. White of Oskaloosa, Ia., elected as president over Lewis by 26,000 votes.

Lewis was given a great ovation when he addressed the convention, following the report. He declared that he would go back to the mines to work. Amid cheers, he went on to say that he would not accept a salaried position from men who own mines, as many retiring officials of labor organizations have done in the past. Said Lewis:

"It has been the aim of my life to see all the miners of the American continent united in one large body, and I trust I may now see a realization of my hopes. I will continue as a member of the organization and hope to attend the next convention as a delegate. I pledge my word to you that because I have been defeated, I will not sell my knowledge of the union to friends or representatives of the class which we are fighting for living wages and hours."

Frank Hayes was re-elected vice president and Edwin Perry was re-elected secretary-treasurer. The vote stood: Lewis, 72,190; White, 98,934. Hayes of Illinois re-elected over E. S. McCullough of Michigan, 91,954 to 73,578; Perry of Iowa re-elected over Green, 91,720 to 70,670.

Lewis was the first to extend congratulations to White. The latter, addressing the convention, expressed his intention of respecting the present policies of the organization and to bring about an end of factionalism. Following the report of the election result, the convention, which has been in session here ten days, got down to real routine business.

and gently reared, women will find in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives and mothers, that the one simple, wholesome laxative remedy, which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally and which may be taken at any time, when the system needs a laxative, with perfect safety and really beneficial effects, is Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

It has that true delicacy of flavor which is so refreshing to the taste, that warming and grateful toning to the stomach which responds so favorably to its action and the laxative effect which is so beneficial to the system when, occasionally, its gentle cleansing is required.

MADE ALL FEEL QUITE AT HOME

No Frills At Tennessee Governor's Reception.

IT WAS AN INFORMAL AFFAIR

Many of the Male Guests Wore Jerseys, White Shirtwaists and Street Gowns Prevailed Among the Women Swallowtail Coats and Social Conventions Were Missing When Former Waif Entered Governor's Mansion.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 26.—A unique reception at the governor's mansion followed the inauguration of Captain B. W. Hooper, the first Republican governor of Tennessee in over thirty years. Carrying out his expressed wishes, guests came in droves dressed in street clothes. Many wore jerseys and the tuxedo and swallow-tail coats were missing from the men, while the women wore shirtwaists in many instances and street gowns in others.

Captain Hooper was raised in an orphan asylum near the spot where he was picked up as a foundling. Many little waifs were among those present at the reception and were not neglected when the good things to eat were handed out.

The governor's four children, respectively eight, six, four and two years of age, with Mrs. Hooper, were prominent in the reception.

DIDN'T STAY AWAY

When Man Accused of Murder Returns Home He Was Nabbed.

Washington, Ind., Jan. 26.—Alex Harper, wanted for first degree murder, was arrested by Sheriff Fielding Colbert at the home of his mother-in-law in Plainville. Harper is charged with the killing of Sanford Davis, a young shop employee. The crime was committed in 1908.

Harper fled the country. The next grand jury indicted him, and although the sheriff obtained trace of Harper, he was never arrested. Sheriff Colbert went to Plainville to serve a summons in another case and learned from a friend that Harper was at the relative's house. He found his man seated in a big rocking chair enjoying a smoke. He had returned to the county ten days ago, but had kept in hiding. The accused is fifty-seven years old and a farmer, and had been living in Arkansas, Texas and Illinois.

Louisiana Corn Lands

We are sub-dividing the beautiful Plantations of the "River Tesche" country, in Southern Louisiana into smaller farms, and selling them to farmers from the north.

These Plantations lay along both sides of the river "Tesche" on the main line of the Southern Pacific Railroad, 100 miles west of New Orleans, and about 10 miles from the Gulf of Mexico.

The "Tesche Country" is the cream of Louisiana, and for that matter, of the entire south. They are under the highest state of cultivation, and every acre is in crops for this season. The soil is a dark alluvial, and is the richest known anywhere in the world.

We are selling these lands at from $60 to $75 per acre on the easiest kind of a crop payment plan. This plan makes the land practically pay for itself and support your family at the same time.

This land is worth $200 per acre of any man's money, right this minute. If you doubt my word, ask any one of the men whose names appear below. They have bought over 1500 acres of this land during the past six weeks at a cost of over $105.00.

JUDGE VOICES HIS OPINION

Alonzo Blair Says he Will Take no Part in Movement to Change Judicial District.

ENJOYED HIS TERM HERE MUCH

Said That Bill Will Have Easy Sailing Through Lower House of Legislature.

The court measure introduced in the State legislature by Representative George S. Billman will have easy sailing through the Lower House, according to information that has been received in this city, says the Shelbyville Democrat. The bill provides for a separate judicial circuit for Shelby county by uniting Rush county with Henry county. The measure would not become effective until the term of the present prosecutor of the Sixteenth judicial circuit has expired. The present incumbent of this office is Dennis O'Neil of Rushville, who began his duties the first of the year.

A committee appointed by the Shelby County Bar Association has been engaged for several days in obtaining facts and figures relative to the amount of business done in Shelby county and the counties surrounding Marion county, which with one exception are in circuit by themselves. Attorneys Wilbur Israel and M. O. Sullivan made a trip to Rushville and New Castle for the purpose of securing data to be used in compiling the statement. This statement has not been completed, but it will be given to the public in the next few days.

It is a well known fact that Shelby county has more taxable property than any of the counties surrounding Marion county. The amount of court business transacted here is sufficient to have one court in operation all the time as scores of cases are continued each term. This will be shown better however, in the statement of facts to be prepared under the direction of the committee of the Shelby County Bar Association.

Judge Alonzo Blair, when interviewed yesterday on the merits of the Billman bill gave out the following statement: "I have taken no part in the movement, whatever, either for or against it. The last term of court at Rushville was a period in which I thoroughly enjoyed myself. There is a good bar at Rushville and the attorneys there have always been kind, courteous and genial to me. I do not intend to say or do one thing in favor of or against the movement to give Shelby county a separate circuit."
